Archaeology: Great Cities of the Past
New Content! Learn how to use archaeological data to examine the wonderful diversity of ancient cities. Utilize a comparative and cross-cultural approach to understand how and why cities develop, expand, and decline. Examine the earliest examples of the urban form in ancient Mesopotamia through the still-occupied great cities of Europe, to the once great capital cities of Africa and the Americas and the less well-known cities of Asia. Short films and video clips will be used for virtual ‘travel’. TWA

Former Yugoslavia: Birth of New Nations
During Tito’s rule, Yugoslavia was known as the land of “Brotherhood and Unity,” and was pivotal to the “non-aligned movement”. Less than a decade after Tito’s death in 1980, Yugoslavia experienced a rupture which led to its dissolution and the remarking of national boundary lines. Explore the unique history, geography, and culture of the countries created by the remarking, as well as the present pressing political and economic interests. The instructor was posted to the Organization for Security and Cooperation Mission in Kosovo for two terms. Guest speakers will present a diversity of perspectives. TWA

Holocaust Art: The Possibility of Creating after the Unimaginable

This course will introduce students to a body of works now called Holocaust art that arose in response to one of Modern history’s watershed moments: the eradication of six million Jewish and other “undesired” people during WWII. We will explore the artists, ranging from the unknown to the very famous, who have risen to the challenge of creating after the unspeakable tragedy. Their works include memorials and museums as well as contemporary works dealing retroactively with this event. We will grapple with issues still relevant today: political responsibility, historical “witnessing,” and art’s potential functions. TWA

Vincent Van Gogh: Paintings and Letters

Vincent van Gogh’s painting style was unique and his use of color dramatic. He lived during the artistic revolution of the 20th century, and although only one painting sold during his life, nearly 100 years after his death, his painting “The Portrait of Doctor Gachet” sold for $82.5 million. In addition to painting, Vincent van Gogh also wrote many letters—over 900 of these have been published. His life and art, with insight from his letters, is the focus of this course. TWA

Who Was King David… Really? ◘ NEW
While understood to be the ancestor of the Messiah, King David began his career as something of a renegade, ran into trouble with Bathsheba and faced numerous palace intrigues. The reign of his youngest son and successor, Solomon, was also full of plots and betrayals, leading to the breakup of the United Kingdom established by his father. Nonetheless, the dynasty David established lasted 400 years—longer than any ancient dynasty—and thereby became a symbol of peace, security, independence, and western civilization’s model of divine kingship for all time. This course will explore the archaeological, historical and literary developments that underlie the remarkable story of the Davidic dynasty. TWA

An Elegant Sufficiency: Musical Masterpieces from Schubert’s Last Year

Benjamin Britten called Schubert’s last year “the most miraculous year in music history.” In his great late works, Schubert reached more often and more extensively for emotion-heightening effects of wildly juxtaposed harmonies and key changes, ever pushing the boundaries. This course will explore the harmony and musical textures of Schubert’s late piano sonatas, chamber works, the Mass No. 6, and his beguiling song cycle Winterreise. Comparisons to contemporaries and Schubert’s milieu will provide context to the examination of Schubert’s masterpieces from 1827-1828. TWA

Sondheim Songbook
He almost turned it down, but mentor Oscar Hammerstein II convinced the young Stephen Sondheim to accept an invitation to collaborate with the team of West Side Story: Leonard Bernstein, Jerome Robbins, and Arthur Laurents. After which, Sondheim’s musicals, such as Sweeney Todd and A Funny Thing Happened On The Way to the Forum, have captivated Broadway audiences. In 2014, with the success of Into the Woods, Sondheim is again prominent in American pop culture. Learn about the influences and creative process of this American musical genius, Stephen Sondheim.

Being Human: Religion and Spirituality
Religion is a cultural universal, occurring in some form in every society. In this course, we’ll explore the nature of religion and spirituality from an anthropological perspective. We’ll address the BIG questions: How does a person come to believe something? Is belief compatible with science? What do people of various faiths actually believe—and how do their spiritual traditions shape their lives? Does religion structure society, or vice versa? Join us for an exploration of human spirituality, a grand tour of world faiths, and a series of lively discussions. TWA

DO NOT drop classes online on or after the day the class begins; you will not receive a refund. APPE students must call 240-567-7262 for refund/withdrawal instructions. Refunds for open enrollment classes will go to the registered student of record. For the Drop Form and more information, visit www.montgomerycollege.edu/wdce/register/refundpolicy.html.

Tuition Installment Plan

Courses with a ▲ have a tuition installment plan available: pay one-third of class total as a down payment at time of registration, then pay the balance in two payments before the class ends. There is a nonrefundable fee to participate in the payment plan. Students desiring to use the payment plan must register online.

Tuition Waiver

Only noncredit courses designated “TWA” tuition waiver applies in each publication will be available for tuition waiver. This statement appears in each applicable course description. Only tuition is waived; required fees must be paid by the student. Documents must be received at time of registration. Senior Tuition Waiver: Maryland residents 60 years or older by the start date of the class may have tuition waived.

Disability Tuition Waiver: This waiver has been reinstated. Please go to montgomerycollege.edu/wdce/register/disabilitywaiver.html for information.

Residency Policy

The following are general guidelines taken from the College policy on residency for tuition purposes. A complete copy of the policy is available in the Montgomery College Catalog.

A. Students attending Montgomery College will pay tuition according to their residency.
B. To qualify, for tuition purposes, as a resident of the state of Maryland, legal domicile must have been maintained for a period of not less than three months prior to the first regularly scheduled class for the semester.
C. The domicile of a person registering in a noncredit course at Montgomery College shall be considered a person’s permanent place of abode, where physical presence and possessions are maintained, and where he/she intends to remain indefinitely.

Transfer Policy

To transfer from one CRN to another CRN of the same course, a letter must be received in the Admissions, Records, and Registration Office, Montgomery College, 51 Mannakee Street, Rockville, MD 20850 before the beginning date of both CRNs of the course. If you have enrolled in a co-listed course you will have only one day after the class has begun to transfer. After that, you are committed to your path for the remainder of the course. If the course has a required assessment level to be a credit student, you must first complete the assessment testing and meet the appropriate assessment level before you can change to credit status.
