Montgomery College
Workforce Development & Continuing Education
Adult ESOL & Literacy Grant (AELG) Program
Offers
GED® test preparation classes for adult learners who need to get their high school diploma.

To Register:
1. You must live in Montgomery County.
2. Students must be 18 years or older at the time of registration
3. Students 18 years of age must provide official documentation of school withdrawal.
4. You must not be enrolled in a private or public high school. If currently attending high school, you must be officially withdrawn before enrolling in our program.
5. This program is unable to provide services to F1 and J1 visa holders. Please see the FAQ section of our website for more details.
6. All new students must register in person on the date and time of registration, and you need to bring a picture ID.
7. Don’t bring children to registration, testing and class.
8. Choose a location offering classes at a time you can attend.
9. You will be given Math and English placement tests to determine your class level. There are three class levels - Adult Basic Education, Pre-GED® Test Preparation, and GED® Test Preparation.
10. GED® Test Preparation level students must pay tuition; all other levels are free.

For information on schedules and registration, call 240-567-8950 or visit the website at www.montgomerycollege.edu/wdce/aelg. Click on the section entitled GED and you will see the various times of day for classes. Attending the Community Info session is recommended, though it is not mandatory to go to one before registering for classes.

This program is funded by the MD Dept. of Labor, Licensing, & Regulation, the U.S. Dept. of Education and the Montgomery County Government. Montgomery College is an academic institution that is committed to equal opportunity and fostering diversity among its student body, faculty and staff.
