YOUR BRAIN ON CONFLICT

What happens to your brain when you are in conflict? What’s going on inside the brain while, on the outside, the vocal chords are straining, tears are flowing, and the hair on the back of your neck is rising? This is a brain-basics course for your brain on conflict. Explore the reasons behind the way you act and react under stress, anger, fear, and sadness. Then learn how to reverse the process and quiet the mind.

MEDIATING YOUR DIVORCE: THE BASICS

Did you know that in Maryland you have to try mediation before you can get a divorce decree? And that there are folks who say they can mediate your divorce but who have never been trained in mediation? This three-hour course will introduce you to the basic concepts of divorce mediation. Topics include: mediation and how it differs from litigation; child access (custody) mediation; marital property mediation; what qualifications to look for in a mediator; and how to find a mediator. You will also receive tips on how to prepare for a mediation—gathering your paperwork, your thoughts, and your wits about you. Divorce doesn’t have to be messy, and it doesn’t have to be a win-lose situation, especially if you are able to mediate effectively.
