Language Students: Not sure of your level?

Ask yourself: If I am in a situation where I must speak the language, how well am I able to understand and be understood? Then read through the course descriptions and register for the level that seems most appropriate. Enrollment in Workforce Development & Continuing Education noncredit world language courses does not require students to complete a placement test prior to enrollment. However, to ensure the best learning experience possible for all students enrolled, students may be encouraged to register for another course based on the instructor’s recommendation.

CLEP: An Inexpensive Way to Translate Knowledge into College Credit
Montgomery College is a national testing site for CLEP, the College Level Examination Program. CLEP is a way to receive credit for what you already know by earning qualifying scores on any of the 33 exams that are offered. These exams test knowledge in the areas of Composition and Literature, World Languages, History and Social Sciences, Science and Mathematics, and Business. Earn college credit in less time and for less money than actually enrolling in the class.
For more information on CLEP including test subjects, registration forms, costs, and a complete listing of test dates, please visit www.montgomerycollege.edu/clep or e-mail: clep@montgomerycollege.edu

Learn a World Language ~ Expand Your Opportunities

World Language classes can help you realize your goal of learning a new language without worrying about grades or big exams. In most languages, all levels are taught, from beginner to advanced. Not all courses are offered every semester. The goal of our language courses is to help you communicate in the language as quickly as possible. Part of every class is devoted to conversation practice; grammar is taught to support this goal of communication. You will be delighted with how much you are able to say, even after the first class.

Inclement Weather

Inclement weather conditions: go to www.montgomerycollege.edu.
If the College is closed, there are no classes. For classes meeting in a Montgomery County Public Schools facility, go to www.montgomeryschoolsmd.org. If MCPS is closed, or evening community use activities are cancelled, there are no classes.

For Montgomery College maps and directions and for Montgomery County Public School class locations, addresses, and directions, please visit http://www.montgomerycollege.edu/maps.

Cancellations or Schedule Change

Montgomery College World Language Department reserves the right to cancel classes due to insufficient enrollment. If your class is cancelled you will be notified and will have the option to transfer to another class or receive a full refund.

Textbooks

Most world language classes with a course code beginning with ‘LAN’ require textbooks. Many texts are used for more than one year of study. Text costs are in addition to course fees. Textbook titles can be found at http://www.montgomerycollege.edu/wdce/ce/languagetextbooks.html.

You may purchase your book through the Rockville Campus Bookstore, Germantown Campus Bookstore, or the Takoma Park/Silver Spring Bookstore if your course is held there. You do not need to go to the Rockville Campus to make your purchase. You may use the Montgomery College online service or call to have your book mailed to you or to another campus (240-567-5347 or 240-567-5389). Go to www.montgomerycollege.edu/bookstores for more details about purchasing, buybacks, returns, contact information, etc.
