Important Student Information Link
In addition to course requirements and objectives that are in this syllabus, Montgomery College has information on its web site (see link below) to assist you in having a successful experience both inside and outside of the classroom. It is important that you read and understand this information. The link below provides information and other resources to areas that pertain to the following: student behavior (student code of conduct), student e-mail, the tobacco free policy, withdraw and refund dates, disability support services, veteran services, how to access information on delayed openings and closings, how to register for the Montgomery College alert System, and finally, how closings and delays can impact your classes. If you have any questions please bring them to your professor. As rules and regulations change they will be updated and you will be able to access them through the link. If any student would like a written copy of these policies and procedures, the professor would be happy to provide them. By registering for this class and staying in this class, you are indicating that you acknowledge and accept these policies.

Academic Honesty: Montgomery College’s policies on academic dishonesty are found in the Student Handbook and under Section VIII of the Student Code of Conduct available at the following link: http://cms.montgomerycollege.edu/pnp/#Chapter_4. Each student is expected to do his or her own work. The minimum grade sanction imposed by a faculty member is to award an “F” on the assignment or test in which the dishonesty occurred. The maximum grade sanction is to award an “F” for the course in which the dishonesty occurred. In addition, each faculty member has the prerogative of referring a case to the campus Dean of Student Affairs with a specific request that the Dean consider imposing additional sanctions.

Absence and Tardiness Policy: Attendance is fundamentally important in this class, and excessive absence/tardiness will affect the Class Participation grade. Any student arriving after class has begun is tardy. You are responsible for all work assigned whether you are present or absent.

Classroom Behavior: Please review the Standards of College Behavior in the Student Handbook or Section VII of the Student Code of Conduct available at the following link: http://cms.montgomerycollege.edu/pnp/#Chapter_4. The college seeks to provide an environment where discussion and expression of all views relevant to the subject matter of the class are recognized and necessary to the educational process. However, students do not have the right to obstruct the faculty member’s ability to teach or the ability of other students to learn. The instructor has the right to determine appropriate conduct in the classroom, and it is expected that students will conduct themselves at all times in a manner that is respectful of their instructor and their peers.

Inappropriate behaviors include (but are not limited to) the following:
1. Socializing with other students once class has begun.
2. Refusing to complete assigned tasks in the class or labs.
3. Sleeping in class, arguing with the professor or other students, showing disrespect towards the professor or other students, or disrupting the class in any way.
4. Using cell phones or texting during class.

Students who do not adhere to these policies will be asked to leave by the professor; if they do not comply, Security will be called. If a student repeatedly refuses to comply with classroom regulations, s/he will be referred to the Dean of Student Development.

Academic Support: In addition to seeking the help of the professor, students are encouraged to use the Writing, Reading, and Language Center on the Germantown Campus (HS150) for assistance with paper planning, writing, and review. See: http://cms.montgomerycollege.edu/edu/department.aspx?id=16341

Disability Support Services: Any student who needs an accommodation due to a disability should make an appointment to see me during my office hours. In order to receive accommodations, a letter from Disability Support Services (SA 189) will be needed. Any student who may need assistance in the event of an emergency evacuation must identify to the Disability Support Services Office; guidelines for emergency evacuations for individuals with disabilities are found at: www.montgomerycollege.edu/dss

Delayed Opening or Closing of the College: Montgomery College will always operate on its regular schedule unless otherwise announced. Depending on the nature of the incident, notifications of emergencies and changes to the College’s operational status will be communicated through one or more communication methods including the College’s website www.montgomerycollege.edu. For the most up-to-date information regarding College openings, closings, or emergencies, all students, faculty, and staff are encouraged to sign up for email and text alerts via Montgomery College ALERT. Registration information is available at www.montgomerycollege.edu/emergency. In the event of a delayed opening, if a class can meet for 50% or more of its regularly scheduled meeting time OR if the class can meet for 50 minutes or more, it will meet.

Communication: Montgomery College e-mail account is the official means of communication between the faculty member and the student. It is a student’s responsibility to check his or her MC e-mail for College and class information.

FERPA: The Family Education Rights and Privacy Act prohibits the instructor from discussing a student’s grade and performance in the course with anyone but that student. The student must submit all exceptions or allowances in writing.
PHIL140 satisfies a General Education Humanities Distribution requirement (HUMD), a General Education Institutional requirement (GEIR), or a General Education Electives requirement (GEEL). Montgomery College’s General Education Program is designed to ensure that students have the skills, knowledge and attitudes to carry them successfully through their work and their personal lives. For more information on the General Education Program, go to www.montgomerycollege.edu/gened.
