

COMMUNITY-INFORMED POLICING

COMMUNITY DIALOGUE

Thursday, September 5

2:30 PM

MONTGOMERY COLLEGE
ROCKVILLE CAMPUS
51 MANNAKEE STREET
SCIENCE CENTER LECTURE HALL
RM SW 301
ROCKVILLE, MD 20850

---

A conversation with newly sworn officers of Montgomery County PD

---

Discussion will include:

- Challenges facing the police/community relationship
- Ideas for how the police can effectively and positively engage the community

For more information, contact
CIP Program Director,
Professor Sonia Pruitt:

sonia.pruitt@montgomerycollege.edu

*Seating is Limited****

Remarks by:

Joseph Hooks
Founder/Director
480 Club

To join this important conversation, register at:

[https://form.jotform.com/
233377208120146](https://form.jotform.com/233377208120146)

Or scan
the QR code

Joseph Hooks
Founder/Director
480 Club

Joseph Hooks is the founder and director of the 480 Club, a dynamic organization dedicated to youth development through therapeutic recreation, sports programs, and wellness initiatives. With a vision to create positive and impactful experiences for young people, Joseph established the 480 Club to provide comprehensive support and opportunities for youth in Montgomery County, Maryland. His leadership has been instrumental in fostering a community-oriented environment where students can thrive both academically and athletically. Under Joseph's guidance, the 480 Club has expanded its reach, offering a variety of programs that include out-of-school time activities and school-based wellness centers. His commitment to youth development is evident in the hundreds of students and athletes who benefit from the club's services each year. Joseph's innovative approach and unwavering dedication to the well-being of young people have made the 480 Club a cornerstone of support and empowerment in the community. For more information, visit <http://www.480club.com>.