

MONTGOMERY COLLEGE AND LOYOLA UNIVERSITY MARYLAND INSTITUTIONAL ARTICULATED PATHWAY AGREEMENT

AGREEMENT

This Articulation Agreement serves as the formal collaboration document for Montgomery College (MC) and Loyola University Maryland (Loyola) to deliver a seamless pathway between an Associate degree program and Bachelor degree program offered at Loyola. The approved pathways are included as a separate appendix to this agreement.

PROVISIONS OF THE AGREEMENT

1. The institutions agree to follow the joint program curriculum and course-by-course articulation delineated in these documents.
2. Both educational institutions will cooperate toward developing, disseminating, and presenting the articulated program information to students.
3. Graduates of MC who have completed the approved degree program with a 2.7 or higher will be considered for admission in accordance with Loyola's Transfer Student Policy. Loyola will accept up to 20 courses of 3 or 4 credits each, plus corequisite 1 or 2 credit laboratory classes.
4. Students intending to transfer should apply for admission by the priority deadline for the semester for which they intend to enroll.
5. Students are subject to all the policies and procedures of both institutions.
6. This articulation agreement is based on the present curricula contained in the appendix. Changes to and the additional of new curriculum can be made without completing the signatory process. The degree requirements will be reviewed biennially; the agreement will be reviewed every five years at which time the agreement can be renewed or ended upon the mutual written consent of both parties.
7. Both institutions at any time may initiate changes to this articulation agreement. Changes should be shared in written format executed by both parties, via email or USPS, with at least 30-day's notice for implementation. The contact at MC will be the Office of the Senior Vice President for Academic Affairs; the contact at Loyola University Maryland will be the Vice President for Enrollment Management.
8. Notwithstanding any other provision of this articulation agreement, all information relating to student educational records shall be treated in accordance with the Federal Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA).
9. This agreement goes into effect for the Fall 2018 semester.
