

Montgomery College-Germantown Campus

The Departments of Anthropology, Art, and the Humanities Area together with the Office of Student Life, Counseling & Advising and the Libraries present a series of events to commemorate

Hispanic Heritage Month 2023

El Día de Los Muertos

*What is Dia de los Muertos? Where did it start? Is it like Halloween? Who celebrates it? Why?
How else do people remember and honor the dead? Join us for answers to these questions and more.*

Remembrance and the Struggle to Unforget in Latin America

Lecture by Political Science Professor Jennifer Haydel

Wednesday, Oct. 11th, 1pm – 2:15pm on ZOOM

Monday, Oct. 16th, 2pm – 3pm in HT 216

ZOOM

Registration link!

Día de los Muertos Community Celebration: Join us to learn about this popular holiday. You are welcome to bring copies of photos, mementos, food or drink in honor of departed loved ones. These will be placed on the altar. You can scan the QR code to share a digital image of a departed loved one, which will be projected on a screen during the celebration.

Wednesday, October 18th 12:00pm -2:00pm (Noon – 1pm: MC Anthropology students present mini lectures about el Día de los Muertos). HS 011- across from the MC Bookstore

Thursday, October 19th -12:00pm- 2:00pm (Noon – 1pm is reserved for quiet contemplation). HS 011 -across from the MC Bookstore

Share a photo of a loved one!

Calaveras T-Shirt Printing Workshop Inspired by artist José Posada

Participants will select from a collection of carved blocks representing skulls, bones, and other imagery to assemble a unique calavera to print on cloth or paper. T-shirts are provided and upcycled garments are welcome. Please sign up to claim your spot!

Friday, Oct. 20th, 10 am to 12 pm HS 161

Sign up for the printing workshop!

All events take place at the Montgomery College Germantown Campus.

If you need accommodations based on disability or you have questions, please contact kayla.yost@montgomerycollege.edu prior to any of the events.