Colleagues,

This has been a tremendous week of efforts and achievement. As we all are going through this unprecedented global challenge, I want to express my sincere and deepest gratitude to each and everyone of you for being innovative, responsive, tireless, and most importantly kind and resilient. Your efforts are so appreciated by me, and by our most important audience - students.

I hope that you and your families, some of whom are far away, are doing well. Please know that we are all here to help each other. We are a strong community. We will come through this well and stronger.

Thank you and please take care!

Sanjay
