Language Students: Not sure of your level?
Ask yourself: If I am in a situation where I must speak the language, how well am I able to understand and be understood?
Then read through the course descriptions and register for the level that seems most appropriate. Enrollment in Workforce Development & Continuing Education noncredit world language courses does not require students to complete a placement test prior to enrollment. However, to ensure the best learning experience possible for all students enrolled, students may be encouraged to register for another course based on the instructor’s recommendation.

There are so many levels of

Co-Listed Classes

Some of our classes are co-listed with credit classes. The two sections meet together, and students are held to the same expectations. The only differences are that non-credit students do not have to apply to the college, do not receive a final grade, and seniors can sign up at any time and receive a waiver. Co-listed classes usually have a small number of seats (2-5), so sign up before it’s too late!
